Editor’s Note

In all the years of my life that I have been singing, Sacred Harp singings have been a place of refuge. I have attended many singings, and always found a few moments of peace. I have truly missed gathering with the people I love, singing these tunes that I love, and for a short time leaving the cares and troubles of the world outside. I look forward to a time when I can return to that beloved activity.

The process for publishing and distributing the minutes book came about in the mid-1990s through the developments made by Jeff and Shelbie Sheppard and others. This process has continued until the present day because it worked well. As in all things, the minutes book must continue to move forward. It is now time to take advantage of new technology.

The minutes book committee has decided to continue the publication and distribution of books, however, there are several changes. The Directory of Singings looks much as it has for many years, but it is all provisional. Please be sure to check with organizers before planning any trips for events. Please be sure to check the pages that have instructions for submissions and fees, as some of these have changed. The process for ordering and receiving books has definitely changed. Be sure to take note.

“On Jordan’s stormy banks I stand, and cast a wistful eye, to Canaan’s fair and happy land where my possessions lie.”

— Judy Caudle
HOW TO SUBMIT MINUTES

Minutes are compiled and submitted by the secretary of the singing. Please familiarize yourself with the general format and style of the minutes of other singings and use the same format and style for your minutes.

- Name/Location/Date/Time Start the minutes with exactly three lines showing: 1) the name of the singing, 2) the location, and 3) the calendar date(s) on which it was held. Do not use all-caps.

- Breaks Indicate breaks using RECESS or LUNCH, capitalized as shown, and on a line by themselves.

- Multi-Day Singings Indicate the start of a second or third day of singing with the day and date spelled out on a line by itself.

- Names Verify the spellings of all names. Do not put state names or abbreviations after singers’ names. Do not insert commas between the name and the first song number.

- Song Numbers List songs only by number. List the name of a song only if the song does not appear in a printed singing book. If two songs begin on the same page, be sure to add lower-case “t” for top or “b” for bottom to the page number. For example: 31t or 49b. If a particular song is the only song beginning on its page, a “t” or “b” should not be used. For example: 306 (not 306b).

- Other Singing Books Use abbreviations listed on page 46.

- Memorial Lesson When listing those memorialized, please indicate the state of origin and year of death if known.

- Officers List officers at the end of the minutes, ending with the name of the secretary.

- Brevity Please be brief with any descriptions of business sessions, resolutions reports, memorial lessons, and expressions of thanks. Submitted minutes will be edited as needed for space reasons.

- E-Mail Instructions and Deadlines are listed on page 5.

- Payment To appear in the Minutes, please send $15 per singing day. Please note that this fee supports the publication process, but it does not include the cost of ordering the books themselves.

- Check Payable to: Sacred Harp Minutes
  Mail to: Judy Caudle
           1821 Gum Pond Rd., Eva, AL 35621

BIG SINGING DAY DIGITAL GET-TOGETHER
Marshall County, Kentucky and Elsewhere
Sunday, May 24, 2020
The 2020 Big Singing—which would have been the 137th session—was necessarily cancelled. Mark Cain subsequently suggested to the membership of the Society for the Preservation of Southern Harmony Singing that, even though we would be unable to convene at the Marshall County Courthouse as is our usual practice, we meet via Zoom on Big Singing Day, 2020 and sing a song or two... or many more. A poll of the SPSHS membership and other supporters of Southern Harmony singing who expressed interest revealed that a majority of the singers preferred to convene via Facebook Live.
Due to the format, individuals were not able to direct the songs of their choice. Before the get-together, people suggested numbers that ought to be sung; their names appear below in conjunction with the song they requested. All selections were from the 1854 edition of The Southern Harmony.
The get-together was convened at 1:15 p.m. by Lesa Lovett, Kerry Lovett, and Ron Pen selecting 103. Selections: Lisa Sieverts 3t; Erin Fulton 6b; Lisa Bulawsky 256;
David Carlton, Marcelyn Thobaben, and James Thobaben 16 (in memory of Tierre Williams); Peter Urquhart 7t; Brenda Dunlap 19t; Claire Outten and Matt Meacham 83; Connie (no last name given) 13t; Darlene Abell 159b; Tom Ivey 76; Darlene Abell 332; Mary Elizabeth Garrison 57; Bob Schinske 322; Matt Meacham 296; Tim Reynolds 33; Darlene Abell 89b; Kate Fine 178; Ray Turner 92t; Tim Gregg 59; Stephanie Davis Taunton 133; Matt Meacham 11; Emily Ross 43 (by request); Amy Hollinger 51 (by request); Connie 89t. The group sang 334, their traditional parting song, and were dismissed.

Though no memorial was conducted, we wish those loved ones of Southern Harmony singers who have died in the past year to be remembered in these minutes. They include Barbara Grossman of Lexington, KY, wife of Mark Klar; Helene Rice Perkins of Lexington, KY, mother of Pat Waggener and mother-in-law of Don Waggener; and Tierre Williams of Nicholasville, KY, foster son of James and Marcelyn Thobaben. Thanks to William Ralph Paris for helping collect these names. May their memory be for a blessing.

Amanda Groves wisely suggested that we seek permission to use the Marshall County Courthouse in Benton, KY for the first “link” in the livestreams. Sadly, the County Clerk’s office did not get back to us in time. Erin Fulton, Tim Gregg, and Marcelyn Thobaben hosted a livestream from nearby Draffenville, KY. We were joined by David Carlton in Nashville, TN; Brenda Dunlap in Washington, DC; Melissa Howrey Fulton in Amy, KS; Tom Ivey in Charleston, SC; Matt Meacham in Edwardsville, IL; Saul Jerome E. San Juan in Austin, TX; Peter Urquhart in Portsmouth, NH; and Sumie Zook in Sacramento, CA. Many thanks are due to Saul Jerome and Melissa for helping keep the livestreams running smoothly, to Emily Ross for walking us through the process for the first time, and to Mark Cain for suggesting the whole idea. He wrote in his initial e-mail to the SPSHS membership, “My goodness, what an interesting addendum to our 136-year history this would be!” It was.

Secretary—Erin Fulton

Persons’ names submitted for the sick and shut-ins list include Barry Rollins, Ricky McGraw, and all those isolated in their own counties, states, and countries who would have so loved to be singing today—with special thoughts for those living alone. Names submitted for the deceased list are Velton Chafin, Ruth Daniel, Mark Hyatt, William Napier, Ottis Sides, Irene Kerr Snow, Margaret Spurlock, Bill Windom—Alabama; Steve O’Leary—California; Aubrey Barfield—Florida; Richard DeLong, Norma Mincey, Bentley McGuire, Robert “Bobby” Rivers, Charlene Wallace—Georgia; Karen Hojnacki—Illinois; Helene Rice Perkins, Tierre Williams—Kentucky; Dorothy Crawford Connor—Maine; Bill Beverly—Michigan; Sonny Erwin—Texas.

Submitted on behalf of the Michiana Shape Note Singers’ officers: Secretary—Matthew Lind

A very reluctant decision was made to cancel our singing this year because of the Covid-19 Coronavirus pandemic. As far as we know this is the first year since our singing began in 1893 that singers and the local community have not met to sing Sacred Harp at Mount Zion. Instead it was agreed that a memorial lesson should be sent by email to the Fasola Singings List by Rebecca Over.

Gary Davis, former Vice Chairman, became Chairman on the death of Richard DeLong in May, 2020; Secretary—Lela Crowder; Memorial Committee, as appointed last year—Rebecca Over and Charles Woods.

The memorial lesson is as follows.

We begin our memorial lesson by thinking of those who are sick and shut-in, and of those caring for them. This year that word shut-in has never been more true for so many. It describes those who are sick, some of whom we hope to sing with again even if that now means waiting until next year, and others who we know we may not see at a singing again. It describes those who are caring for them. We think of and miss them all. But this year shut-in also very accurately describes the plight of those isolated in their homes, their counties, their states and their countries by rules brought in to fight the spread of the Covid-19 Coronavirus. For these people as well as for the sick and their carers a letter, a card, a telephone call or an email has never been more important. The need for ongoing communication and care, when so many cannot meet to sing and to enjoy even a socially distant fellowship with loved ones and friends, has never been more great. Let us hold all these people in our hearts, wherever they are in the world, and spare a special thought or prayer for those living and coping entirely alone. In our thoughts today are Judy Henry, Ricky McGraw, Barry Rollins, Philip Denney, William Futral, Glenn Keeton, Betty Shepherd, Louise Ivey, Lucy Heidorn and Susan Rice. For all these our song is 70t.
Now we remember those who have died during the twelve months since we last met.
Our thoughts and prayers go out to all those families and friends who mourn for them. Some on our list sang at Mount Zion for most of their lives. Some passed away after long illnesses. Others were taken suddenly in relative youth. All will be greatly missed not only by those close to them but by the wider Sacred Harp community, whose chords of love, fellowship and song span continents and countries across the world. Even as we mourn we find comfort in knowing that those loved ones and friends are surely singing in heaven with those who have gone before, and that one day we will see them again. Those who we remember today are Velton Chafin, Mark Hyatt, William Napier, Ottis Sides, Margaret Spurlock, Bill Windom—Alabama; Aubrey Barfield—Florida; Richard DeLong, Bentley McGuire, Robert (Robby)
Rivers, Irene Kerr Snow, Charlene Wallace—Georgia; Barbara Jean Grossman, Helene Rice Perkins, Tierre Quantrell Williams—Kentucky; Dorothy Crawford Connor—Maine; Bill Beverly—Michigan; Sonny Erwin—Texas. In the lesson sent to the Fasola Singings List Rebecca shared memories of each of the many deceased on this list who she had personally known. For all these deceased our song is 381.
The prayer to close our lesson comes from Karen Rollins of Bowdon, Georgia, who regularly attends our singing. Our Heavenly Father, you command us in John 15:17 that we love one another. Please help us to keep this commandment, to show your love, in these uncertain times. Our hearts are heavy, Lord, as we struggle with the fear and the isolation. We miss the singings and the singers. Please help us to hold close the memories of those who have gone before, to reach out to those who are sick, bereaved, and alone, and to reflect your love in our lives. Dear Lord, let our prayers, words and actions exemplify your love. Amen.
Respectfully submitted: Rebecca Over and Charles Woods (Mount Zion Memorial Committee) and Karen Rollins on behalf of the Officers and Singers of the Mount Zion Memorial Singing.

During these trying times we especially need to remember those who are sick and shut-in. Please pray for those that we may soon see them again, singing and worshiping with us. Lisa continued the memorial lesson by reading the following list of names of the deceased: Bentley McGuire, Richard DeLong, Charlene Wallace, Larry Smith, Artie Lewis and Myra Jo Reid Dudley—Georgia; Bill Windom, Jewell Wootten, Velton Chafin and Ottis Sides—Alabama. Lisa stated: I believe all these wonderful souls were taken from us too soon. I am reminded of the scripture Romans 8:28—And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. God has a reason and a purpose for everything He does. God does not make mistakes. In our sorrow we must take comfort in God’s word. She then quoted 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14. Bentley, Richard, Charlene and all those who we love dearly will be deeply missed. Through God’s word we know we will see them again in Heaven one day. It is there that we will be able to meet and join our voices together to shout and sing Hosanna. The joy we will have to see our family and worship together at the throne of God! We must hold on to their memories and rejoice in knowing we will be reunited again in Heaven. Lisa shared some loving memories of Bentley, Richard and Charlene. For encouragement she read from the scriptures of (NIV) Isaiah 41:10—So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and keep you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. In honor of the sick and shut-ins and in memory of the deceased Lisa led 339. Secondly, we are thankful for every member of the Wilson family for preserving and maintaining the Wilson's Chapel, as well as, providing for all of our needs as we attend the convention. Most importantly, we thank all of the singers that came to sing and fellowship in order to make this 168th session of the Chattahoochee Convention a success. Our numbers may have been few but you do not always need quantity as long as you have quality! Furthermore, in these difficult times of dealing with the Coronavirus Pandemic we are reminded of past times that we have heard of when the convention was impacted by wars and other difficulties that could have caused a session to be missed. However, like today, our ancestors always managed to hold the convention. We continued the tradition this year so that a session has never been missed! We give a very special Thank You to everyone that attended to make that possible. Lastly, we resolve to meet next year the first Sunday and Saturday before in August for the 169th session of the Chattahoochee Convention. CENTRAL ONTARIO SACRED HARP CONVENTION
Friends House, Toronto, Ontario and Detweiler Meetinghouse, Roseville, Ontario
August 21-23, 2020

The third Annual Central Ontario Convention, which would have been held on the fourth Sunday in August and the Friday night and Saturday before, had to be cancelled in 2020 because of the Covid-19 pandemic. However, Pleasance and Chuck Crawford conducted a Memorial Lesson during the Toronto Shape-Note Singing Community’s weekly Wednesday-night Zoom singing on September 2nd.

Pleasance began: The Memorial Lesson is an important and treasured part of the Sacred Harp tradition, and one that we in Ontario have honored since our very first Central Ontario All-Day Singing in 2003. The lesson usually begins with a list of the Sick and Shut-In. In 2020, at the time of our convention, we did not seek names for this list. What follows are words we might have spoken.

Many in the singing community are sick, and we wish them well. Many others are caring for the sick, and we pray for their continuing health. All of us are, in a sense, shut in—and shut out—because we cannot truly gather to sing. We fervently hope that, by August 2021, we will be able to come together again in one place. With those thoughts in mind, let us sing 50b Humility, verses 1 & 3.

Our list of the deceased combines the one compiled by Rebecca Over for the cancelled Mount Zion Memorial Singing in Georgia on July 26th and our own list for August 23rd.

Chuck and Pleasance then read the following names: Mark Hyatt, Ottis Sides, Margaret Spurlock, William Napper, Velton Chafin, Bill Windom, and Jewell Hulett Wooten, all of Alabama; Stephen O’Leary, California; Robert “Robby” Rivers, Charlene Wallace, Bentley McGuire, Richard DeLong, and Ida Kerr Snow, all of Georgia; Aubrey Barfield, Florida. Tierre Quantrell Williams, Barbara Jean Grossman, and Helene Rice Perkins, Kentucky; Dorothy Crawford Connor, Maine; Bill Beverly, Michigan; Kathryn Smith Bowers, Missouri & Colorado; Paul Foster, Ohio; Judy Toole, Tennessee; Sonny Erwin, Texas; Janis Thibault Davies, Ontario.

Pleasance continued: In memory of the deceased, let us sing 330b Fellowship, verses 2 & 3.

Pleasance concluded the Memorial Lesson with this prayer by Maya Angelou:

Father, Mother, God,
Thank you for your presence
during the hard and mean days.
For then we have you to lean upon.
Thank you for your presence
during the bright and sunny days, for then we can share that which we have with those who have less.
And thank you for your presence during the Holy Days, for then we are able to celebrate you and our families and our friends.
For those who have no voice,
we ask you to speak.
For those who feel unworthy, we ask you to pour your love out in waterfalls of tenderness.
For those who live in pain, we ask you to bathe them in the river of your healing.
For those who are lonely, we ask you to keep them company.
For those who are depressed, we ask you to shower upon them
the light of hope.
Dear Creator, You, the borderless sea of substance, we ask you to give to all the world that which we need most—Peace.
Amen.

UNITED KINGDOM SACRED HARP CONVENTION

Cancelled Due to Covid-19 Pandemic

September 19-20, 2020

Sadly, due to the pandemic, we were unable to meet and sing together. However, a memorial lesson was observed on Sunday, September 20, a transcript of which is here submitted.

In these uncertain times, it seems particularly poignant to be conducting a memorial lesson when we cannot be together to comfort one another in singing for our loved ones.

In the UK we refer to the Sick and Housebound rather than sick and shut-ins, but for many of us, sick or not, the “shut-in” aspect seemed particularly appropriate this year as we were all confined to our homes in lockdown. It certainly made me reflect more about what it means to be shut-in.

As many of us will have done, Ted and I were able to get out for walks everyday and were able to see our family either from the end of the driveway or in distanced meetings in the garden. But I was desperate for the usual closeness and hugs from our children and grandchildren.

During that time when it was really just Ted and me for days at a time, we had one another to talk to, to moan at, to share our fears and worries. But this just made me ponder all the more on how lucky we were and what it must have been like for someone living alone, to have no-one in the same house; not to have that close personal contact; what it means to be truly shut-in.

We always consider those of our singing family who are sick and resolve to contact them and let them know that we’re thinking of them. We also need to consider more fully the fact that it is not only those who are sick, but those who are alone and lonely too.

The saddest part of this pandemic has been, not only in the deaths it has caused, but that those who were ill and dying were unable to have their families around them at a time when love and comfort was needed most—not to be able to say goodbye when the time came and for the families not to be able to mourn together and comfort one another. I cannot imagine how that must feel.

But our loved ones live on in our hearts and in our cherished memories of them. We should always keep talking about them and remembering them.

Right now, we all have the hope and expectation that one day, hopefully soon, we will be able to meet and sing together again. It is that same hope and expectation that will lead us to meet our loved ones again on Canaan’s happy shore.

Deceased: Jewell Wootten, Bill Windom, Velton Chafin, Margaret Spurlock, Otis Sides, William Napier, Hobert Harris, Vila Mary Parris Tyree, and David Hollaway—Alabama, USA; Charlene Wallace, Bentley McGuire, Richard DeLong, and Russell Robbins—Georgia, USA; Aubrey Barfield—Florida, USA; Stephen O’Leary—California, USA; Bill Beverly—Michigan, USA; Sonny Erwin and Myrl Jones—Texas, USA; B—Washington, USA; Roy Davis—Mississippi, USA; Paul Foster—Ohio, USA; Jean Ayotte—Massachusetts, USA; Paul Luther Wilson—Minnesota, USA; Tierre Quantrell Williams, Barbara Jean Grossman, and Helene Rice Perkins—Kentucky, USA; Janis Thibault Davis—Canada; Tara Sanfey—Ireland; Angelika Stamm and Wolfgang Neugebauer—Germany; Roberto Cavallar, Irene Antolini, and Riccardo Zamboni—Italy; Thelma West, Jack Nathan, Tony Kane, Terry Bamford, Pete Gillard, Dorothy Singleton, Tony Pantling, John Stonnell, Sean Jennings, Sally Lucy, Ron Williams, Janet Sale, Des Childs, John Williams, John Brindley, Patrick Malham, Stephen Brearley, Christopher Bullough, David Pitts, Helen Thomas, and John Kappes—United Kingdom.

We thank you for the lives of those who are no longer with us, especially those who helped us to sing and to be a part of the Sacred Harp community; be with those who mourn the loss of a loved one and strengthen them in their sorrow; help us to be beside them with words and actions to give support, comfort and encouragement. And finally, we ask for your care and compassion on us all in these difficult times; in Jesus’ name we pray, Amen.
the-grounds while we cannot meet in person. A brief business meeting was held and it was resolved to meet on the fourth Sunday and Saturday before in September, 2021, for the 32nd Minnesota State Sacred Harp Singing Convention for which the current co-chairs, Cathy Jordan and Tivey, were nominated to serve in the same capacity. The memorial lesson was conducted by Philip Denney and Kacey Askin. Kacey read the following from Karen Rollins: The memorial is a quiet time to cease singing and to remember those who are sick and shut-in and those who have passed away since we met a year ago. For many, this has been a time of being shut-in, so we especially want to think about those who cannot be with us today. We want to think about how we can reach out to them whether it be a call or visit. Philip read the following names of the sick and shut-ins: Susan Ford, Barry Rollins, Rodney Ivey, and Coy Ivey.
Kacey continued reading: We also want to remember those who have passed away, and it seems that we have lost a lot of singers in the past year. It is important to remember the dead and to realize that we will one day be among them. There is a familiar poem called “In Flanders Fields” written by a Canadian doctor/soldier, Lt. Colonel John McCrae, in WWI as he looked over the numerous graves of the fallen soldiers. Part of it reads: “We are the dead. Short days ago we lived; To you from fallen hands we throw; The torch; be yours to hold it high; If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep.” All those singers who passed away this year and all those who came before them are passing us the torch of Sacred Harp. We are to remember them and to keep alive the tradition that they loved and supported and passed along to us. They are asking us to preserve this tradition. Their names will one day be forgotten—So will ours. If we do our part, this sacred trust of Sacred Harp will thrive and there will be singers long after we are gone. We are thankful for the lives of those who are on this list. We are thankful for their contributions to our beloved singings. We remember them and honor them at this time. Philip read the following names of the deceased: Richard DeLong, Charlene Wallace, Bentley McGuire, Curtis Owen, Bill Windham, and Bill Beverly. Phillip and Kacey led 283, which was a request by Don Bowen, for the sick, shut-ins and deceased. Philip Denney closed the memorial with prayer.

FA-SOL-LA WORSHIP SERVICE
Mercer County, Kentucky
Sunday, December 13, 2020

The nineteenth* annual meeting of the Appalachian Association of Sacred Harp Singers at Mt. Zion Methodist Church was necessarily deferred till 2021. Pastor James Thobaben was impressed with the value of this event to his congregation as well as the shape-note community and, inspired by the Big Singing Day Digital Get-Together, he resolved to “keep going an important tradition.” This service was held on the church lawn in lieu of our traditional half-day singing. Given the scarcity of Southern Harmony books, song selections this year were from The Sacred Harp, 1991 Edition or from memory only.

The service was called to order on the church lawn at 2:55 p.m. by James Thobaben offering the opening prayer, and a welcome to attendees of all religious traditions.
Leaders: James Thobaben 73b; Rafi Finkel 479; Ron Pen 223; Randy Webber 28b; Tim Gregg 63; Turner Lyman 45t; Kay Huffman 503; Cathy Taylor 312b (with comment by Dr. Thobaben regarding the belovedness of this song in the Mt. Zion congregation); Erin Fulton 146 (in memory of Harry Eskew); Susan Liddle 178; Ron Pen 38t (in honor of Mary Brinkman and her family); James Thobaben 267 (in memory of Tierre Williams). The class of thirteen chilly but cheerful singers was dismissed with a benediction from the scripture of 186: “Good will to men.” Though no memorial was conducted, we wish the loved ones of Kentucky singers to have a place in these minutes. We mourn the loss of Margaret Spurlock—Alabama; Harry Eskew and Brooke Webber—Georgia; Rev. Douglas Simpson—Indiana;

Barbara Jean Grossman, John Pickow, and Tierre Quantrell Williams—Kentucky;
Peter Golden—Maine; Bill Beverly—Michigan; Sonny Erwin and Curtis Owen—
Texas. Our thoughts are with the continued health of our friends Baird Lyman, Peggy Brinkman, Pat Waggener, Jesse Vear, and Laura Densmore.
Thanks are due to the Mt. Zion congregation for welcoming this service; James and Marcelyn Thobaben for convening it; Ron Pen and Tim Gregg for providing loaner books and Clorox wipes; and all who braved the inclement weather. We sincerely hope that this will be the last time we must meet in this way, as well as the first.
Regardless, we consider ourselves blessed to have been able to gather and are determined to keep singing in whatever manner we can for as long as we possibly can.
Note regarding 19th annual: we counted better this year.
Chairman—James Thobaben; Vice Chairwoman—Marcelyn Thobaben; Secretary—

A Summer Camp for Learning and Singing Sacred Harp campfasola.org

Camp Fasola is an immersive experience for learning Sacred Harp singing, history, and traditions. No experience is necessary. Camp Fasola has classes for both beginners and experienced singers. Cumulative attendance at camp sessions has exceeded 3,000 since 2003.

Camp Fasola is being reimagined as we move to a new venue in Huntsville, Alabama and hold both Adult Camp and Youth Camp in the same week at the same place! What does this mean for campers?

• Lessons and electives led by experienced and innovative singing school teachers
• Fellowship and fun with singers from 20+ states plus foreign countries
• New recreation options and time to hang out with singing friends
• Class singing sessions because this is what Sacred Harp singing is all about
• Bunkhouses and open cabins for youth and young adults
• Comfortable double occupancy hotel style lodging (offsite 7 miles at The Vision at Bailey Cove) for adults with option for single occupancy
• New opportunities for intergenerational mingling in during singing and electives
• Lemonade making and watermelon social on last full day of Camp
• Community singing the last evening with opportunity to sing with folks from the surrounding area
• Time for relaxation and rejuvenation in a beautiful setting
• Attend traditional southern Sacred Harp singings both the weekend before and the weekend after Camp Fasola
• Plan to come early to Huntsville, a premier progressive city, for activities before and after Camp

Camp Fasola Europe in Chmielno, Poland has become a must-attend destination for the beauty of Wichrowe Wzgórze and for the special week-long retreat full of Sacred Harp singing and learning. Camp Fasola Europe is generally held on alternating years in September, the week between the UK Convention and the Poland Convention.

Please see campfasola.org and/or the Camp Fasola Facebook page for up-to-date plans and schedule information.
